RIBSTONE COUNCIL MEETING: DELEGATES REPORT OF THE CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS

A regular meeting of the Municipal District of Ribstone council was held Friday, November 10th at 1:30 in the afternoon. All the members of the council were present: Reeve Ferguson presiding.

Minutes of last preceding minutes were read, and Mr. McCluskey moved that same be adopted as read. Carried.

Delegates Report

Councillors Dalton and Tunney, the delegates to the Municipal Convention at Calgary on the 1st inst., presented the delegates report. There were 311 delegates registered at the opening session, in addition to a large number of visitors. The matters which took up the time of the convention to a large extent were as follows:

Assessment Equalization: the present method being considered unjust and unfair.

Care of the sick and indigent: A change was made for in this now important part of the duty of a councillor, and it was proposed that the province be authorized to provide for same out of the supplementary tax.

Mother's Allowance Act: Resolved that no relief under this act be given by the province until same has been first approved by the municipality.

Discount on taxes: The matter of requesting the amendment of the act to allow M.D.s to give discounts on taxes was discussed, but was not favored by the convention.

S. S. B. lands: It was resolved that all S. S. B. lands which had reverted to the Crown should be rented by tender, to enable M. D.s to make collection of taxes out of the rent.

Tax Recovery Act: This act was discussed at length, and the date for filing caveats was recommended to be fixed in November instead of October as at present, and the costs of filing same be reduced.

The Domestic Animals Act: This act also came in for much criticism mostly in pound fees, number of head of stock allowed to run at large. There were resolutions from some seven districts under the head of pound fees. The convention recommended that the province repeal the present act, and introduce an entirely new measure at the next session of the legislature.

Fighting Grasshoppers: A resolution was passed asking the province to make it compulsory for all persons to get out and fight grasshoppers.

Liquor act: The resolution calling upon the province to take control of the liquor trade was lost by a narrow majority.

Other matters discussed included: Hospital taxes, Noxious Weeds Act, Wild Lands taxes, Municipal Fire Insurance, Equalization of school taxes within a municipal district, Health Poll Tax, Qualifications of Electors, Penalties on Arrears, Road Grants, Coyote Bounties, Maintenance of Market Roads, and telephone agents remuneration.

Both the delegates expressed themselves as quite convinced that the municipal conventions were doing a good work, and that it was worth while for every council to keep in touch with what was going on over the whole of the province, in other districts as well as their own.

Cir Sewell moved that the report

At Green Meadows School, Wednesday November 29th at 8 p.m.

LIBERTY FOWL SUPPER AND BAZAAR WAS A VERY SPLENDID SUCCESS

The fowl supper and bazaar exceeded all expectations, in spite of the cold and unseasoned weather the hall was crowded and full justice was done to the bountiful tables.

The Bazaar consisted of very useful articles for young and old and very reasonably priced. At the close of the super Mr. Wilde was called upon to act as auctioneer and all surplus stock was sold, including roast chickens, pies and cakes; and a very merry time was spent, in fact so much laughter that our worthy auctioneer could scarcely hear himself speak at various times.

The proceeds were as follows:

Receipts at door	$49.00
Bazaar	$38.80
Total	$142.80

The ladies of the above society extend a hearty vote of thanks to all kind friends and visitors.

NOTES FROM THE NORTH EAST

Our friends at Légaré are busy preparing for their annual Xmas tree. It is supposed that an aeroplane will figure conspicuously.

Don't forget that everyone is invited to the whist drive at Fram School on Friday evening. A good time is promised. Come and win the prizes.

Quite a number of carloads of cattle were shipped from this district last week.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION

(This article is well worth careful perusal. It sets forward in a clear and concise manner the proportional representation, together with arguments for and against the system of voting.—Editor).

The various and widely-spread demands for some form of proportional representation are the reflection of more or less general dissatisfaction with certain aspects of the traditional system of government by majority representation. Of these the following has been most prominently criticized:

1. Disproportionate Representation.—Under the existing single member-constituency, single member system of election, the seats available by returning parties bear no proportion to the popular vote, of the results of the Federal Election of 1911.

Party	Votes Poll'd	Seats	Seats Divided	Seats In Proportion	To Votes
Conservative	669,851	134	115	115	5,764
Liberal	655,182	87	106	106	6,045

Majority

The Liberal party with a majority, however small, distributed over a large number of constituencies, while the party with a majority, however large, concentrated in certain sections, can win those seats only. Moreover, in three-cornered contests, such as characterized the last federal election, the winning candidate not infrequently obtained only a minority of the total votes cast in his constituency.

2. Injustice to Minorities: Minorities whose vote, intelligence are of respectable proportions are unable to narrow the majority which separates them from the winning party. Under a two-party system, the Republican minority in the "solid" Democratic South, or the Conservative minority in the "solid" Quebec, have, for example, no prospect of representation. Where more than two parties exist, the adherents of the newer or smaller groups, having no chance of electing their representatives, must either bargain with the stronger parties, or, as is contended, resort to direct action, in order to realize their policies.

3. Domination of Party Machines: It is claimed further that under the choice but to vote for the "official" candidate nominated by the party machine. If he does not wish to vote for the opposite party, he must either cast his ballot for a candidate who does not command his confidence, or else abstain from going to the polls.

Moreover, capable men who are too honest or independent to subscribe unqualifiedly to the official party platform, are virtually excluded, if not from independent nomination, at least from probable election. The legislature, accordingly, tends to be filled by amenable rather than eminent representatives.

Types of Proportional Representation

The 300 or so variations of proportional representation which have been tried out or proposed, with a view to overcoming the above objections to the majority system, practically all the U.S. Department, asking for particulars of the plan. The scheme is proving of great interest to farmers of the province. Over 4000 bushels of seed grain have been shipped to the plant, and much more is expected. The cleaning plant is about to be installed, and will be of a modern type. It is emphasized by officials of the department, that it is the purpose of the department only to handle the surplus seed grain, that cannot be handled by the farmers themselves.

Great interest is being shown by the United States Department of Agriculture in the new government co-operative seed grain marketing plan, and the government cleaning plant which is now being installed by the seed branch of the Department of Agriculture under the supervision of W. J. Stephen, crops commissioner. Mr. Stephen has received a letter from the federal grain supervision bureau of

MY CONTROL WIRELESS TELEPHONES

Control of wireless telephony by the provincial governments is recommended by the executives of the telephone departments of the western provinces, including Alberta, and legislation seeking to transfer control from the federal to the provincial governments will be asked for at the coming session. The recommendation is that stations be licensed by the provincial governments and that fifty per cent. of the license fees go to the dominion government.

NEW RATE FOR CREAM SHIPPERS

As a result of action taken before the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada, by Alfred Chard, freight supervisor for the provincial government, in behalf of the Alberta Dairyman's Association, a new rate has been established by the express companies for three-gallon can shipments of cream. Previously the minimum insisted upon by the express companies was a five-gallon can. Under the new arrangement three-gallon cans will be accepted, and this will be of much benefit to small shippers. The rate established is 5 1/8 per cent. or the rate for five-gallon cans. While the schedule applies to the National Railways and the C.P.R., the same proportional reduction will be put into effect on the railways north of Edmonton. The schedule is as follows:

Not over 25 miles	15 cents
50 miles	18 cents
75 miles	32 cents
100 miles	25 cents
150 miles	34 cents
200 miles	42 cents
250 miles	42 cents
300 miles	58 cents
350 miles	66 cents
400 miles	74 cents

Capacity can must be legibly marked on the can with not less than one-inch figures. Can must not be less than 16 inches high for less than 10% inches in diameter at the bottom. The bottom of the three-gallon can must be so constructed as to permit piling on top of other cans.

Capacity expended on a child's first set of teeth will help to keep the youngster healthy, and free from colds and other childish ailments, according to one medical authority.

THRESHING MACHINE REGISTRY

Up to October 30, a total of 3,717 threshing machines had been registered in the province, a greater number than has been registered in any particular year. Owners of machines who have not yet registered with the department of agriculture should do so at once.

PLENTY OF SPUDS

Several districts in Alberta report a surplus of potatoes. The latest is from Vauxhall, where the farmers have "raised a considerable" surplus this year.

a new reason why we should again turn our faces to the west.

Coming as we did, from the East,
it is but natural that we habitually look to the East as the direction from which our supplies are procured; and also the direction in which we should ship our products. And remembering that in the early days it was not possible to ship to the West, the habit became fixed.

TO MAKE OUR OWN
RAILROAD PAY

now possible to ship westward and to ship westward over our own national railroad. A railroad which crosses the Rockies with no heavier grades than we have within our own Ribstone municipality.

Further, to enable our national railroad to pay it's way, it is necessary to equalize as far as is possible both east-bound and west-bound freight—thus avoiding un-necessary train and car mileage of "empties" (or non-revenue producing) train.

GROWTH OF OUR
WESTERN PORTS

Prince Rupert, a fine deep sea water ocean port is languishing for some of the business that could with proper development of business facilities be turned over to it with profit to ourselves.

Vancouver, our other Pacific port is making tremendous headway, and has many miles of water-front that can be developed into first class harborage.

It is somewhat of a surprise to learn that the gross tonnage of vessels entering Vancouver during 1921 was 10,- 244,011 tons, whilst Montreal's during the same period was 483,956 tons less, 11,779 vessels entered Vancouver as compared with Montreal's 5,541 (Vancouver has a large coast shipping business, passenger and freight). The imports were $6,000,000 greater at Vancouver, whilst the exports were nearly $80,000,000 greater at Montreal

THE NORMAL
DIVISION

A glance at the map of Canada will show that the mathematical division of eastbound and westbound export traffic is roughly a line drawn south and north from Battleford. By rights with our comparative mileage to the Atlantic and the Pacific, and comparing also the railway grades, it should be our normal course to ship west-

A CHOICE OF ROUTES

The Panama canal is of more service to us than a possible, but future, Hudson Bay route. We need more elevator space at Vancouver. We need lower mountain rates—a point not sufficiently emphasized by our U.F.A. members at Ottawa. And given these facilities we may look for a pro-itable, natural instead, more and better markets for the varied produce of Alberta.

MAKING
THE WEST

"Turn your face to the West, Daddy and ponder over these ideas."

We have heard Ontario people claim that the Easterners made the West—and maybe, we too have our West to make in order to obtain our profits.

In the sunshine of favouring circumstances it is easy for the worldly to be cheerful; but the light that shines in the darkness of adversity and bereavement has a heavenly origin.

EMPTY TALK

Bill Empty loves to wag his tongue upon the pivot where it's hung; he talks more freely than he ought, and what the says amounts to naught.

Now it is almost sure to pay, if one has not a thing to say, to keep the tongue within its bound and not go babbling around.

For good impressions fall so flat when listening to empty chat, and no one cares to hear a lot of never going tommorrow.

Bill Empty's tongue is built for speed and he employs it well indeed; he talks you dizzy in the head, and when he's done there's naught been said.

YOUR TEMPER

Your temper—it's yours. Never lose it—always keep it. When you are in the right you can afford to keep it—when you are in the wrong you can't afford to lose it. Smile. Keep your temper. Remember nobody wants it —it's yours.

KEEP QUIET

When hushie and bustie your ears
both command,
And life's full of noise like a super jazz band;
To your ears put your fingers, and in your mind's eye
Just look at the "quiet" and maybe pass by**

The quiet of wheat fields barren and worn;

The quiet which gathers before the dread storm;

The quiet of midnight in rose-scented
lane;

The quiet of mothers who nurse you
in pain;

The quiet of snow, as it covers the ground;

The quiet of woods, which the twilight has crowned;

The quiet of children in bed and asleep;

The quiet of God's tiny creatures which creep!

The quiet of mountains, majestic and grand;

The quiet of deserts with cactus-spread sands;

The quiet of churches; the quiet of books;

The quiet of handclaps, and kind loving looks.

Some folks like noise, and they tell us so, too,

But I prefer quiet, and stillness, don't you?

It is to be noticed that the traffic at Montreal is nearly equally outbound and inbound, whilst at Vancouver the traffic is largely composed of inbound traffic.
This in turn causes a preponderance of eastbound traffic on the mountain section of the line, contributing to a higher cost of operation. By diverting a larger section of Alberta's exports to the west we can reduce the transportation costs, (and ultimately the charges).

A MEAN ADVANTAGE

The old countryman and his wife were paying their first visit to a mercantile.

When they halted before the hippopotamus the old man remarked to his wife:

"That's a queer fish, Mary!"
"Nonsense!" was the reply. It's a reptile, of course."

In this way an argument was started, and before long the old lady began to belabour her husband with her umbrella. The old man fled with his wife in hot pursuit, and seeing the keeper had just opened the door of the lion's cage, he jumped inside and hid behind the largest lion.

On the other side of the bars, the old woman furiously brandished her umbrella, and shouted:

"Coward! Coward!"

THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

The most remarkable thing about Smith, was his amazingly large mouth, which he always contorted into an all-pervading smile whenever he wished to make a good impression. His sweetheart persuaded him to "ask father," and he was determined at all costs to make a good impression.

"Mr Jones," he began, with a smile took its usual prominent part, "I have come to ask permission to marry your daughter, I—"

"Our moment!" interrupted the old gentleman mildly. "Would you mind closing your mouth for a moment till I see who you are?"

LETTERS TO THE EDITORARE WE FORGETTING

To the Editor

Chauvin Chronicle

Sir:

Once more Armistice day has passed, and as one ponders over this event of the year it prompts me to hear these few observations "Are We Forgetting?" True, we, in this district have bought our poppies, paid for them, and worn by them honor of those brave lads who paid the supreme sacrifice. We have done all this, but did we realize what the occasion really signified? Did we pay to these men what they really deserved? Did we thank God for such men? We attended dances in honor of the armistice. We rejoiced on the anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in the Great War. But did we attend the memorial service held for those who fell? Some of us did, but we noticed that many of those who should have been there were conspicuous by their absence. Some took their cars out and went for an "enjoyable" ride in the country. They forgot? probably unthinkingly. Some even watched the parade, and passed on. They forgot deliberately. Some made excuses for non-attendance, (god, bad, and indifferent) but there was no excuse for those who did not attend the service on Sunday afternoon Nov. 5th. The majority came in for the evening service, but the afternoon service dedicated to those who died was neglected, and these men died that these very persons who were absent might live. One could wax sarcastically, one could denounce them patricratically, but this is written more in sorrow than in anger, that on this day of all days they preferred their own individual enjoyment, rather than pay a tribute to those who saved this Canada of ours for the Canadians.

I am Sir,

Yours very truly,

THE CHAUVIN ALMA-MATER

We got into a conservation about golf the other day and as a result we sat, at length putting it under the door-step. Mr. Boucher, however, said this was rather unsatisfactory and we decided to make a golf court. We got the sod and made four holes in different parts of the school yard, got the baseball bat and borrowed a ball from a Grade I pupil in the other school.

All went well until Billy, who had been absent from school, returned and then, as that said he had never heard of that honorable game which Mr. Boucher and the boys said they knew so much about, Mr. Boucher and I decided to show him. One of the boys laid the ball on the ground took the bat and struck, missed and hit the ground, this was repeated for three times, and at last Billy said "that he didn't understand, as he didn't see what the little ball was for."

Laughter followed and Mr. Boucher took the bat and in trying to make a good swat to persuade Billy struck the tiny rubber ball and drove it half a fathom into the earth.

A pleasing program was held at the Chauvin High School Friday November 10th.

The program was opened by The Maple Leaf Forever. First was a recitation by Thea Armour about a naughty wee boy. Miss Inn Armour said a very quaint recitation about Eddie's gramophone, which was enjoyed by all. The successive shouts of "More" were rewarded by her getting up and saying a few words about a mule and "Delbert" which brought tears to her eyes.

Bell Burton said a few things about man and a mule which all the girls enjoyed.

All the members that didn't take part in the concert were called upon to give speeches.

James' speech in all evidences of a lazy boy.

One couldn't expect much from Gordon's speech "or bobbed hair." The reason being he would offend so many in the room.

Delbert had one of the best speeches on "Should women be elected to parliament?" He of course said "No" and put in many good reasons for saying it.

To end-the programme a geography match was held. Ina won it, by knowing the capital of Scotland. Why shouldn't Ina know this?

Elma couldn't take part, because of a frog in her throat. Croak! Croak!

No job should be easy. No job is easy if you put all your mind and might into it.

Bridges for 1923: C.R. Sewell moved that the secretary be instructed to apply for a pile bridge to be put up at Ribstone, in place of the abutment bridge now located north of the hamlet, running north and south between 19 and 30-3-2-w4th. Carried.

Chauvin Agricultural Society: A delegation from the Chauvin Agricultural Society, composed of Messrs A. E. Keltz and J. Craddock attended, to ask for support towards the expenses of the Seed Fair. This matter was fully discussed, and C.R. Dallyn moved that the council make a grant of $25. Reeve Ferguson moved as an amendment, that the grant be $50. The amendment was lost, only two voting for same. The motion was carried. The grant was required for the purpose of erecting pens for poultry, bringing same in line with the requirements of the department.

MORE GRAIN MOVES WEST

Over 1,000,000 bushels of grain have been shipped through Edmonton in Vancouver, compared with 200,000 bushels at this time a year ago, according to information obtained at local inspection office. This heavy load on last year's figures is due to the early harvesting operations, it is stated.

There have been 1,000 cars handled while at this time a year ago the total was 300 cars. For the whole of the 1921 season there were 3,500 cars inspected so it is apparent that a great deal of grain has yet to pass westward from Edmonton.

S. Thompson, local dominion grain grading No. 1, and No. 2. Northern is of splendid quality. He considers that the quality is better than last year, but no doubt the quantity will eventually show a falling off. The excess in shipment at present is due to the early crop, he says.

It is pointed out that these local grain inspections only cover the districts served by the Canadian National railway. In the district northeast of Calgary, heavy shipments have been made to Edmonton for inspection while it is the same with the districts east on the C.N.R. main line. No rain has been brought here from Saskatchewan this year.

PROGRESSIVE LEADER
RESIGNS HOUSE POST
BUT STAYS IN RANKS

Hon. T. A. Crerar has announced to his followers in the Canadian Parliament his resignation from the leadership of the National Progressive Party.

Mr. Crerar stated that business obligations and his personal position made it impossible for him to continue the leadership and that had these questions not intervened his retention of the post would have depended "upon a clear understanding and statement of the Progressives' program."

Rigid restriction of the Progressive party to farmers would Mr. Crerar declared in the letter, render not only a disservice to the country as a whole but to the very people the movement was created to assist. All people of good will who believed in certain definite principles as applied to public policies, should be included.

MARVELLOUS PERFORMANCE OF A MC LAUGHLIN CAR

It has remained for an Alberta driver and a Canadian made car to set an American dirt road record that will probably live for many a year. The stunt was performed Sunday, November 5 when Paul Welch, in a McLaughlin Buick Master Four, stock model, made the trip from Edmonton to Calgary and return, 415 miles in 9 hours, 26 minutes and 55 seconds. The time includes two stops at Red Deer for gas, totalling 3 minutes, stop at Calgary for registration, 3 a puncture, and the period consumed through losing the trail out of Calgary and retracing five miles. The ten miles travelled in this is not included in the mileage from Edmonton and return. Mr. Welch was accompanied on his trip by Steve Playford.

The fastest time made was from Edmonton to Calgary 4 hours, 52 minutes;

the return trip took 4 hours, 51 minutes, 55 seconds, due to losing the trail and the puncture. The fastest the car travelled was 68 miles per hour and the slowest 15 miles. Turns were made at 35 miles an hour by the expedient of turning the front wheels sharply and locking the back ones, a practice which Driver Welch does not recommend for amateurs.

The common stock motor of the Master Four performed perfectly, declares Mr. Welch, living up to a trial that should never have been asked of it. The car itself was five feet in the air after some of the bumps, taken at 60 miles an hour, but that strain was minimized by the Hartford shock absorbers with which the car was equipped. On the return home there was not a rattle in the machine; even the boy bolts had not loosened.

agree in substituting multi-membered for single-membered constituencies, so that representation may be divided. The principal divergencies arise, according as the elector's vote may be multiple, or single, cumulative, preferential, or transferable, or some combination of these features.

I. Multiple Vote, or List System

If each voter has as many votes as members to be elected, and yet may not give more than one to any candidate, then where the "straight ticket" is generally voted the strongest party will necessarily carry all the seats in the constituency, and disproportionality be further aggravated. Accordingly in some European states electors vote for one less than the number of seats, so that the minority may have an opportunity of returning one member. Under the list system which has been in effect in Belgium since 1890, and has been introduced in France since the war, each party prepares a list of candidates not exceeding the number of seats. The voter may concentrate his multiple vote on one list but not on one member. This degree of "proportionality" obtained depends largely on the extent to which the votes are "split."

2. Cumulative Multiple Vote: In Switzerland where proportional representation was first experimented with, the system now generally adopted in the cantons allows the voter the option of "cumulating" all his votes upon one candidate. This method makes the return of a minority candidate reasonably attainable, but may be embarrassing to the stronger parties, since it is difficult to ensure the proper distribution of party votes among the several members of their ticket.

3. Simple Single Vote: Much simpler is the Japanese system of limiting the votes to a single vote in a multiple constituency. Here again however, while it ensures that a compact minority of a certain size will secure a representative, injustice is liable to be done to the majority parties, since their most popular can-

HOW THIS MAN DID IT

It is said that Devils Lake, is the best advertised city in North Dakota in proportion to population, and it is due largely to one merchant who has a general store. Customers come there from every direction, and the name of "Mamm's" is a byword of the country sides just as "Sears & Roebuck" is around most towns. Devils Lake has a population of only 5000 people and the other merchants are prospering due to the aggressiveness of one man. He probably does five times as much business as all the stores do but he also spends $25,000.00 a year in advertising. His newspaper advertising averages better than half a page every week in the year in both home papers and he uses papers in adjoining towns as well. Mamm's competitors have found that they must play the game the same way and do. It brings in the business and the mail order evil which threatens the existence of many retail merchants is almost unknown there. The town is also extremely prosperous.
